NepaliPay Security Overview

NepaliPay is committed to maintaining strong security practices for the protection of consumer financial data.

Core Security Controls

- Role-based access control and least privilege

- Centralized identity management for administrative access

- Multi-factor authentication for administrative access

- TLS encryption in transit

- Encryption at rest where supported

- Managed cloud infrastructure and provider security controls

- Access logging and monitoring where supported

- Risk-based vulnerability management

For security inquiries, contact `security@nepalipay.com`.